

Long, Albin, Grabhorn Name Math Contestants

ANNOUNCING CANDIDATES for this year's math contests on the city, regional and state level were Roy Long, head of the math department, and Lee Albin and Alfred Grabhorn, math instructors.

Regional math contestants in

Shifting Sands by Sandy Brock

DECISIONS! DECISIONS! We will never reach a point in our lives when such things as decisions will no longer be necessary and yet we often try to push them off or delay them until "a more convenient time."

Editor

Now that the vocational guidance conferences are over, we may believe that this is one of the areas that we can forget about for another year and thus avoid that aforementioned plague. Such an important decision as evaluating the vocations available and choosing the appropriate life work for us, as individuals, is terribly important and requires careful consideration. Still, it is not a bad idea to at least weigh the various occupations and begin eliminating those which we know will not satisfy our ambitions.

ALTHOUGH WE LIKE to escape making decisions whenever possible, vocations is one subject that should never be stored away in the backs of our minds without any thought to the future. We may revise our intended plans time and time again, but we must at least do some planning to chart our course after graduation or plan our subjects for college.

Here at school we are provided with reliable resources on a variety of vocations. We have an opportunity to listen to the advantages and disadvantages of a number of fields, to participate in question and answer sessions about each subject and then to draw our own conclusions as to its application in our particular situation.

When we are in doubt about which fields to consider because we have a number of references, there are aptitude tests which are available through the counselors' offices to help us make that primary decision — In which vocation would I be most satisfied?

RETURNING TODAY from its annual pilgrimage to some of the schools in the northern part of the state is the All-City Concert Orchestra which has completed another successful concert tour. This orchestra is an outstanding musical organization which contributes a great deal to the cultural aspect of education. There are numerous persons from our school participating in this tour and we are fortunate to have such an outstanding musical department which allows their participation in this activity.

Hess Selects Committees

COMMITTEE MEMBERS are now working on "Cotton Jubilee," the sophomore party, according to Ken Rakow and Nina Lee Powell, co-chairmen, and Mrs. Dora Hess, party sponsor.

Composing the publicity committee, headed by Paul Heller, are Billie Wright, Diane Meckert, Carolyn Clark and Robin Cook. Also serving on this committee are Betty Cook, Candy Hunt, Jane Voight, Pauline Robertson and Ruth Kleinschmidt. Completing this committee are Susie Feldkamp, Linda West, Wally Moore, James Goldenburg and Sharon Sullivan.

ALAN GUMBERTS will serve as chairman of the ticket committee. Working under him will be Carol Stock, Janet Huber, Dennis Elliott, Kendra Beesley, Ginda Springstun, Janice Yost and Julie Haas. Also on this committee are Denise DeBoe, Gail Engel, Sally Newhouse, JoAnn Brenner, Betsy Bradley and Vickie Semler. Completing this committee are Deanna Barton, Jean Jardine, Linda Foster, Ann Comstock, Jerry Southwood, Dan Hewins, Philip Lieberman, Bonnie Graham and Nancy Stansbury.

Members of the refreshment committee, headed by Shayron McLemore, are Judi Duncan, Ellen Schermack, Margie Andrea, Julie the Comprehensive C division are James Marver, Sidney Kushner, John Stevens and Linda Door. These students have completed four years of math and are now taking Advanced Math III, Roy Wyttenbach, Jr., Steve Edmondson, Rick McCoy and Marvin Freson are entered in Comprehensive B for students having had three years of math. Comprehensive A, for students having successfully completed two years of math, has Bob Thiel, John Wilson, Bill Luersson and Jerry Kirves competing.

EVANSVILLE COLLEGE Comprehensive Contest has only one division. Participating in this will be Jim Roy, Charles Robertson, Sidney and John. Completing the list are Linda, Jerry Vaughn, Robert Keil, Rick Steve, Bob and Stuart Rodman as alternate.

Contestants in the geometry division are Ken Rakow, Van Cline, Bob Sonnemaker and Chip Mansure. Their alternate will be Wayne Henry. These five students along with Paul Heller, Greg Anderson, Mike Iosue, Wayne Ralph as alternate and Sue Merchant as second alternate will have the opportunity to participate in the Evansville College Contest for second year math students taking Geometry II.

Bob Faul, Ann Hirschberg, Barbara Long and Caroline Yeager will take part in the regional math contest for first-year algebra students. Ed Lieberman will be the alternate. Joining these students in the Evansville College contest will be Carolyn Beesley, Joyce Foreman, Bruce McCoy and Kathy Thiel. Alternates are Bruce Batts, Don Florida and Pam Vaughn.

Math-Slide Rulers Join Similar Likes Into One Club

TO UNDERSTAND mathematics by learning other number systems and to learn the use of the slide rule, is the purpose of the Math-Slide Rule Club, according to Joanne Hufnagle, vice-president and program chairman of the club.

Among the scheduled speakers is Gene Bennett from Evansville College, who will speak about modular numbers, on April 20. Pete Morrison, senior, will talk about one of the number systems in the near future.

This semester the Slide Rule and Math Clubs combined their similar interests. They are now jointly studying the use of the slide rule.

Highlights After Deadline

STEVE O'NEIL, CAROLIN NASH and Jim Owen are the newly elected Editor-in-Chief, Managing Editor and News Editor, respectively, for the Club edition of the SCHOOL SPIRIT, April 14.

OMITTED FROM THE LIST of students participating in the Spanish contest Saturday, March 25, were the names of John Guest and Carol Huff. They will be in the first year Spanish students' contest.

THERE WILL BE NO SCHOOL March 30, 31, and April 3 and 4 due to Easter vacation. There will be no edition of the SCHOOL SPIRIT Friday, March 31.

Low, Sandy Ruffin and Sharon Helton. Comprising the remainder of this committee are Patty Guthrie, Jane Reinitz, Tamara Neu, Roger Griffin, Ted Kinkel, Jim Stitt, Mike Oliver and Linda Miles.

Chairman of the clean-up committee is Mike Iosue. Serving under him are Janice Forney, Lana Martz, Sue Davis, Joy King, Judy Reed, Barbara Campbell, Carole Berning, Van Cline and Beth Edwards. The entertainment committee, headed by Norman Jones, is composed of Paul Black, Delbert Nelson, Elizabeth Butler, Martha Butler, Martha Brill, Marcia Bennett, Lynn Robinett, Jane Willison and Jill Rogers.

Jack Schreiber will act as chairman of the decoration committee. Serving under him are Sharon Tucker, Jane Huffman, Don Walling, Alan Siesky, Ray Shackelford, Martha Kuenzli and Nancy Wiley. Also on this committee are Jane Conaway, Carol Vaughn, Karen Lippold, Esta Herrmann and Susie Meyers. Completing this committee are Sara Pfander, Kay Kuebler, Linda Lampert, Ginny Meyer, Judy Smity and Ricky Lang. The chaperon committee, headed by Gayla Dame, is composed of Marianne Mintz, Carol Conwell, Linda Fightmaster and Ricky Biggs.

THE School Spirit

Benjamin Bosse High School Evansville, Indiana

Vol. LXXIV No. 6 Fri., Mar. 24, 1961

Hyatt Picks Cast For 'Lil' Abner'

Stinson, Cannon Take Leads In Operetta

Mr. and Mrs. Pappy Yorum (Pat Ryan and Lee Ortmeyer) pose with their son and daughter-in-law (Mike Cannon and Sandy Stinson) in front of their lush country-side estate. The choral department will bring Dogpatch, U.S.A., to Bosse in the form of the Broadway musical, "Lil' Abner," May 17, 18 and 19.

SANDI STINSON, Mike Cannon, Lee Ortmeyer and Pat Ryan will portray four of the main characters of the choral department's operetta, to be presented May 17, 18 and 19, in the auditorium, reports Richard Hyatt, choral instructor.

Sandi, who is treasurer of Student Council, will portray Daisy Mae. This will be her second operetta at Bosse. Taking the part of Lil' Abner will be Mike Cannon. Mike has performed in several school productions and is an active Thespian. Lee Ortmeyer and Pat Ryan will take the parts of Mammy and Pappy Yokum, respectively. Lee is currently secretary of Student Council. Because he is a freshman, "Lil' Abner" will be Pat's first operetta. OTHER MAJOR PARTS are Moonbeam McSwine, who will be portrayed by Vicki Foster and Marilyn Sam, who will be characterized by Dennis Biggs. Jerry Sahrhreich will take the part of General Bullmoose and Steve Schneck will portray Mayor Dawgmet. Joanne Hufnagle will personify Appalachian von Olimax, the General's "ward."

Steve Hubele will portray the notorious Evil Eye Flangle and Marilee Royer will take the part of Seatlett. Bartholomew McFoon and Available Jones will be characterized by Charles Buttrum and Bill Dixon, respectively.

LARRY BURTON will portray Senator Jack S. Phogbound and Mike Judd will take the part of Dr. Finsdale. Jill Gilmore will characterize Shugruber Jones. Taking the part of Dr. Smithhorn will be Allen Lewis. Tom Wilhelmus will portray Dr. Krogmeyer and Bob Gowdy will characterize Dr. Schirritz.

Betsy Willison, Joan Postleweight and Jeche Wilhite will portray three of the six wives. Other wives will be Sandy Brock, Lois Rosenbium and Marsha Gaunt.

Based on Al Capp's cartoon characters, "Lil' Abner" involves the "Unnecessary Town" of Dogpatch, U.S.A., and the various problems that arise when its extraordinary inhabitants come face to face with the outside world. For these light-hearted individuals inhabit not only a town but a world of their own. Daisy Mae's endless effort to get Lil' Abner to marry her is the basis of the story. The discovery of Mammy's Yokumberry Tonic, Bullmoose's efforts to obtain the secret of the tonic and the effect that the tonic creates on some of Dogpatch's "prospective husbands" are all part of the fascinating world of "Lil' Abner."

Kushner, Robertson Win Science Search

RECENT WINNERS in the fourteenth annual Indiana Science Talent Search were senior Sidney Kushner and Charles Robertson, according to Woodrow Pemberton, head of the Science Department.

Last Saturday Sidney and Charles ventured into Indianapolis to compete in the finals. There were thirty aspiring young scientists in the competition along with Sidney and Charles. In the morning these boys were subjected to interviews with six doctors from various fields, ranging from physics to social studies. Most of the contestants were asked questions pertaining to their projects. All projects had to be set up and exhibited that morning.

AT 1 P. M., all contestants were invited to the honors luncheon. Prizes were then awarded to the top fifteen entrants in the state. Each winner received a certificate acclaiming his accomplishment and, if he chose, a year's subscription to "Scientific American." Included in this list were Sidney and Charles.

Sidney, advisee of Richard Hyatt, has won the Industrial Chemical Award, Second Honor Rating and the First Alternate Navy Cruise Award in the Tri-State Science Fair. This year Sidney is president of the Science Club, a National Honor Society member and attended a science institute at Indiana University last summer.

Charles has won the Industrial Physics Award and the Second Honor Rating at the Science Fair. He is a National Honor Society member and attended a summer science institute at Michigan University. Charles is an advisee of Charles Mathieu.

School Talent To Participate In Blackouts

SELECTED IN AN audition of local talent, two musical groups from the fine arts department will appear in the fourteenth annual Philo Blackouts, which will feature famed African jazz singer, Miriam Makeba, tonight at the Stadium at 9 P. M.

Philo Blackouts is presented annually by the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. The fraternity runs auditions for local talent, and the acts that are good enough are asked to participate in the show. This year two groups from Bosse tried out and made the grade. "The No Name Four," a popular singing group around school, including Jerry Sahrhreich, Mike Cannon, Bob Gowdy and Dennis Biggs, made the list and will be in tonight's show. Another group that also performed will be the Copacabanda. This quartet of jazz musicians is compiled of Bob Henderson, Paul Black, Norman Jones and Gary Stevens who is from Central.

